ASIA RESTAURANT MIT INDONESISCHE SPEZIALITÄTEN

Der Name TukTuk stammt aus einem Dorf auf Samsorinsel im Tobasee Nordsumatra, Indonesien. Wir sind in Berlin seit 1984 vertreten und haben zahlreiche Stammkunden für eine traditionelle indonesische Ambiente und authentische Küche. Wir lassen Sie in unserem Restaurant wie im Indonesienurlaub mit Klang von traditioneller Musik aus Sumatra, Java oder balinesische Gamelanmusik verweilen.

Erfahren Sie mehr über uns, unser junges Team und unsere Räumlichkeiten. Im unseren Fotoalbum unten haben wir für Sie ein paar schöne Impressionen von unserem Haus, unseren Gästen und Feiern zusammengestellt.

Schließen Sie die Augen und lassen Sie sich von dem Genuss unseres Hauses verzaubern. Wir versprechen Ihnen, dass Sie bei uns einen unvergesslichen Abend erleben werden.

Asia Restaurant gibt's fast in jeder Ecke, aber indonesische Küche ist immer ein Erlebnis. Erlesene Gewürze sorgen für den typischen Duft und geben den Spezialitäten eine unverwechselbare Note. Im exotischen Ambiente aus Gold- und Rottönen unter asiatische Bambushütte und umgeben von indonesische Kunstwerke aus Ubud Bali können Sie in aller Ruhe unsere Speisekarte studieren.

Tritt man bei uns ein, eröffnet sich einem eine feine und vor allem geschmackvolle Welt Asiens. Indonesische Küche ist ein besonderes kulinarische Erlebnis. Lassen Sie sich dazu vom herzlichen und fürsorglichen Service unserer Mitarbeiter begeistern. Wir freuen uns auf Sie!

AASCU 2018 ANNUAL MEETING

OCTOBER 28-30
WASHINGTON, DC

CHAMPIONING STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES
OUR ROLE IN DELIVERING AMERICA'S PROMISE

Panel Discussion:
"What the Midterm Elections Could Mean for Higher Education"

To help AASCU presidents and chancellors stay informed about how the midterm elections could affect their institutions, AASCU's 2018 Annual Meeting will feature a panel discussion with Donna Brazile—a veteran Democratic political strategist and former interim chair of the Democratic National Committee—and Ed Gillespie—the 61st chair of the Republican National Committee and former council to President George W. Bush. Join us to hear the experts outline what the midterm elections could mean for public higher education serving the nation's new majority.

PANELIST
DONNA BRAZILE

Veteran Democratic political strategist Donna Brazile first got involved in politics at the age of nine, when she worked to elect a City Council candidate who had promised to build a playground in her neighborhood. Ms. Brazile went on to work on every presidential campaign from 1976 through 2000, when she became the first African American woman to manage a presidential campaign. Author of the best-selling memoir With Grease: Stirring the Pots in American Politics, Ms. Brazile is an adjunct professor at Georgetown University; a syndicated newspaper columnist for Universal Uclick; a columnist for Ms. Magazine and O, The Oprah Magazine; and an on-air contributor to CNN and ABC, where she regularly appears on This Week.

Enrollment Success in a Time of Turbulence

A historic convergence of market forces is increasingly undermining the lifeblood of higher education institutions: tuition revenue. Some of these forces are well known, such as the number of high school graduates stalling or decreasing in many regions of the United States for the past several years, while others are more recent, including digital communications both providing new ways to reach students and opportunities for costly missteps. This session will focus on key capabilities universities should have to boost tuition revenue, and will present case studies and real-world examples of the transformative effect these strategies can have at institutions.

- Robert O. Davies, President, Murray State University (Ky.)
- Tom Taylor, Senior Consultant and Principal, EAB | Revell & Company
